

Births, Marriages and Deaths.

Every notice under this head must be authenticated by some responsible person.

BIRTHS.

- CHILD.—August 22, at her residence, Evans-street, Balmain, the wife of H. Childs, of a son.
- CHRISTIANSEN.—August 25, at her residence, "Paio," Liverpool, the wife of M. Christiansen, of a son.
- CRAMP.—August 30, at her residence, Exeter Villas, Addison-road, Marrickville, the wife of H. Cramp, of twins.
- PARKES.—August 27, at her residence, Etruria House, Mary-street, Leichhardt, the wife of Mr. Joseph Parkes, musician, of a son.
- RILEY.—August 14, at her residence, Alice-street, Newtown, the wife of Ralph M. Riley, of a son.
- RITCHIE.—August 29, at Barmedman, the wife of W. S. Ritchie, of a son.
- TODD.—August 26, at her residence, 91, Walker-street, Redfern, the wife of H. Todd, of a son.
- WILDMAN.—August 23, at her residence, 19, Solway-terrace, Walter-street, Paddington, the wife of Alison Wildman, of a son.

MARRIAGES.

- GODSON—HALL.—July 10, at St. Paul's, Cleveland-street, Sydney, by the Rev. T. Martin, John, eldest son of Theophilus Godson, of Birmingham, England, to Ada, youngest and only surviving daughter of Henry Hall, of Sandiacre, Derbyshire, England.

DEATHS.

- ABRAHAM.—At her residence, 335, Castlereagh-street South, Rosetta, relict of the late J. Abraham, aged 76.
- CALLAGHAN.—August 29, at his residence, Melbourne-terrace, 376, Crown-street, Surry Hills, Samuel Callaghan, aged 76 years.
- DAVIES.—August 24, at 47, Cornwallis-street, Redfern, Robert, youngest son of James and Hannah Davies, aged 10 months.
- EZEY. August 27, at his late residence, Spring Grove, EZZY. August 27, at his late residence, Spring Grove, near Orange. William James Ezzy, after a long and painful illness, leaving a wife and family to mourn their loss, aged 68 years.

FIELDING.—August 25, at Granville, Edward Fielding, aged 68 years.

FISHER.—August 29, at her parents' residence, 4, Norton-street, Glebe, Margaret, youngest daughter of Alfred and Margaret Fisher, aged 1 year and seven months.

JARMAN.—July 28, at her parents' residence, Union-street, Macdonaldtown, Maud Mary, second and beloved daughter of J. B. and Elizabeth Jarman, aged 8 years 10 months.

KING.—August 25, at her residence, Wilberforce, Elizabeth, the beloved wife of James King, aged 65 years, a native of Cambridgeshire, England.

LONERAGAN.—At the residence of her brother, Mr. Edward Henton, 128, Botany-street, Moore Park, Bridget, the beloved wife of Mr. James Loneragan, Mudgee, aged 34 years.

LUZENHOFF.—September 1, at her parents' residence, Elizabeth Cottage, Douglas-street, Waterloo, Gertrude Rebecca, aged 15 years and six months, the dearly beloved twin daughter of Frederick and Grace Luzenhoff, sister of Mrs. George Watts, Prospect.

M'BRIEN.—September 1, at his parents' residence, Palmer-street, of congestion of the lungs, Walter Joseph, after a short but painful illness, aged 8 years and 8 months, second son of Thomas and Mary M'Brien, Parramatta.

OXLEY.—September 1, at his residence, 409, Elizabeth-street, Strawberry Hills, Edward Mostyn Oxley, of chronic Bright's disease, aged 67.

PENROSE.—August 24, at the Queen's Head Hotel, Wilcannia, Mary Catherine (Pollie), beloved eldest daughter of John and Catherine Penrose, aged two years and three months.

SAMPSON.—August 24, at 7, Albion-street, Surry Hills, Louisa Elizabeth, the dearly beloved daughter of Thomas and Matilda Sampson, aged 6 years 5 months.

SEWELL.—At her daughter's residence, 219, Forbes-street, Darlinghurst, Mrs. Ann Sewell, relict of the late George Sewell, of Sutton Forest, aged 71 years.

SHEPHERD.—August 27, at the residence of his sister, Fernbank, Ashfield, Thomas William Shepherd, botanist, eldest son of the late Thomas Shepherd, of Darling Nursery, Sydney, aged 49 years.

gory, Sydney, aged 89 years.
UNSWORTH.—August 28, at her residence, near Wood's Flat, nowra, Margaret Agnes, wife of Richard Unsworth, aged 43 years.
Dearest mother, how we miss thee
None but bleeding hearts can tell.
Earth has lost thee, heaven hath found thee;
Jesus hath done all things well.
