IN MEMORIAM

CANTY, J. T.—In loving memory of our dear father, who passed away on May 28, 1938.

The years are slowly passing.

But still we don't forget;

And in the hearts that loved you,

Your memory lingers yet.

Inserted by his loving family.

DICKFOS, Henry.—In loving memory of my dear husband, who passed away May 28, 1945, at the Boonah General Hospital.

Oh, dear Henry, how I miss you.

Words would fail my loss to tell;

But in heaven I hope to meet you

Evermore with thee to dwell.

I miss you, Henry, because I love you.

Fond memories I do recall;

And the parting from you, dear.

Was the saddest day of all.

But thou, O Lord, hath sent the cross.

And I bear 't all for thee.

Inserted by his loving wife, Wilhelmina Dickfos.

DICKFOS, Henry.—In loving memory of my dear brother and our uncle, who passed away on May 28, 1945.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe, where storms are o'er;

Soon to meet and part no more

In our Father's mansion fair.

Inserted by his loving sister, Christina, and family.

DICKFOS, Henry.—In loving memory of our dear father, and grandfather, who passed away in the Boonah General Hospital, May 28 1945.

A beautiful memory of one so

A beautiful memory of one so dear.

We cherish still with love sincere;
Till memory fades, and life departs.

You will live forever in our hearts.

Inserted by his loving children and grandchildren, Clem and Phyllis Bartholomai and family, Gatton.

DICKFOS.—In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, and great grand'ather, Henry Dickfos, who passed away on May 28, 1945.

Sweet is the word of remembrance.

And these lines will show

We hold you still in memory

As years may come and go.

God needed one more gem for his crown.

A jewel of priceless worth;

And he said to his angels as he looked down.

I'll take the best on earth.

Inserted by his loving daughter and son-in-law and grand-daughter, Mabel, Henry, June, Hensellen, grandchildren and great grandson, Dulcie, Bertram, and John Schneider.

DICKFOS.—In loving memory of our dear brother, brother-in-law, and uncle, Henry Dickfos, who departed this life on May 28, 1945.

HESLOP.—In fond memory of Mr. J. S. Heslop, who passed away May 28, 1946.

Always remembered.

Inserted by the Robins family.

PAGE.—In loving memory of our only son and brother, Cliff, aged 23 years, who died suddenly May 28, 1947.

We know what it is to be lonely and sad.

Longing for the son we once had;
With tender love and deep regret.

The ones that loved you will never forget.

A silent thought, a silent tear.

Holds your memory very dear.

Short and sudden was the call.

His sudden death surprised us all;

No one he loved was by his side

To hear his last faint sigh or whisper.

Just one loving word before he closed his eyes.
We never knew the pain he bore.
We never saw him die.
We only know he passed away
And never said good-bye.
May the heavenly winds blow
softly

O'er that sweet, hallowed spot,
Where the one we love lies sleeping.

Till we meet in heaven above.

Inserted by his loving mother,
father, sister, and brother-in-law.

STOKES.—In loving memory of our dear father, Frederick Arthur, gotten.

liam, daughter-in-law, Elsie, and family, Kalbar.

THOMAS.—In loving memory of my dear wife, Alice Jane, who

May Heavenly winds blow softly.
O'er that sweet and hallowed
spot,

Where one we loved lies sleeping,
Who will never be forgot.

Inserted by her loving husband.

THOMAS.—In loving memory of my dear sister and aunty, Alice
Jane, who passed away on May 28,
1946.

Two long years ago to-day,
The loveliest sister passed away;
A wonderful sister, loving and
kind,

Her equal on earth I never shall find.

For every one, she d'd her best,
May God grant her eternal rest.

Inserted by her loving sister
Agnes, and daughters, Thelma and Ruby.

THOMAS.—In loving memory of
our dear mother, mother-in-law, and grandmother, Alice Jane, who passed away on May 28, 1946.

We think of you each day, dear
mother.

With grief that is deep and true;
No one knows the silent heart-
ache.

That makes us long for you.

Some may think we have forgotten you.

When at times they see us smile,
But your memory is as dear to-day,
As the hour you passed away.

Inserted by her loving daughter,
sons, daughter-in-law, son-in-law,
and grandchildren.
