

GOLDEN WEDDING

On Christmas Day the family and relatives and a few intimate friends, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Caldwell, at their residence at Larras Lee, the occasion and its atmosphere of carefree happiness making the function a most delightful one.

Only three sons of the family of ten children were absent, one being in New Guinea with the fighting forces, another in New Zealand, and a third unable to make the journey from Sydney.

The happy couple were married in St. John's Church, Molong, on Christmas Day, 1893, by Rev. Canon Alldis, assisted by the Rev. Seymour Smith, names which bring back memories of a Molong of a wider and more spacious day.

The long residence of the family at Larras Lee and their intimate association with the progress of that district, tion with the progress of that district, as well as the universal esteem in which the family is held, make the occasion a notable one and the numerous felicitations which have marked the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell at the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day, provide evidence that their numerous friends are not unmindful of the significance of the event.
