

KILLED IN A QUARRY.

LAURIETON, Friday.—Arthur Oxley Crassingham, employed at the Camden Haven Harbor Works, was killed at Laurieton Quarry to-day. A large stone fell from the top of the quarry and struck him on the head. Deceased was a married man.